The League of Women Voters, a nonpartisan political organization, encourages informed and active participation in government, works to increase understanding of major public policy issues, and influences public policy through education and advocacy.

As an organization, it does not support or oppose candidates for public office but acts only on those issues chosen by the membership for study and action.

Additionally, the League is fully committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion, and is striving to overcome historical injustices and stereotype-based bias. The LWV of Appleton-Fox Cities is committed to fostering an environment of belonging as we work together to carry out the League's mission to Empower Voters and defend Democracy.

The screenshot shows the website for the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction's American Indian Studies Program. The header includes the department's logo, a language selection dropdown, and a search bar. A left sidebar lists navigation options: American Indian Studies, Fact Sheet, Tribal Nations of Wisconsin, Memorandum of Understanding (MOU), Language and Culture Education Licenses, State Statutes, Resources, Meet the Staff, Annual Summer Institute, Calendar of Events, and Listserv. The main content area features the program title, a photo of a teacher with students, and a list of languages: Aaniin / Aho / Bozho / Koolamalsi / Pōsoh / Shekóli. Below this, it says 'Hello or Greetings in Ojibwe / Hocak / Potawatomi / Mohican / Menominee / Oneida'.

Questions, Answers, and Comments from the Chatroom

Q: How to apply for being an election Poll Worker?

- A: Appleton Election Inspector Applications:

<https://www.governmentjobs.com/careers/appletonwi/jobs/3273178/seasonal-election-inspector?page=2&pagetype=jobOpportunitiesJobs>

- Answer from Char Nagel: Election Inspector via MyVote: <https://myvote.wi.gov/en-us/Become-PollWorker>

Q: What should citizens do if they feel uncomfortable at the poll due to some canvassing for specific candidates or other reasons?

- Answer from Kami Lynch: Call 920-832-6443, Appleton City Clerk's Office
- Answer from Char Nagel: two of the polling locations are at a Police Station and a Fire Station. There hasn't been problems at the other two, but let the poll workers know if there is a concern.
